

Top 7 Call Center Companies in India

Outsource your customer service to call centers and improve customer satisfaction. Business process outsourcing companies offer digital solutions to optimize customer-oriented processes, including lead generation, market research, and web design. We've reviewed leading call center companies to help you choose the right one.

01

Fusion BPO Services

Fusion is a well-established call center service provider in India, offering digital solutions, customer engagement, and utility billing to various industries. The company aims to pioneer technological innovations and achieve customer satisfaction and business growth for clients with a growth-oriented business approach.

02

Sales Aladin Call Centre Services India

Sales Aladin is a leading Indian call center company providing market research, lead generation, and mar-tech solutions to B2B providers. It applies modern strategies to optimize marketing processes, including RPA and IoT applications. The company has a tailored approach for each client, thus making it a top call center.

03

Flatworld Solutions

Flatworld Solutions is the biggest call center in India, serving thousands of high-profile clients worldwide. It offers diverse services like business process outsourcing, call center services, data entry, software development, research, and digital marketing. The company has integrated modern technology and techniques since 2004 to enhance efficiency.

04

VSynergize

VSynergize is among the top 5 Indian call centers, offering innovative B2B demand generation, high-quality leads, and nurturing services. They conduct marketing campaigns through various modes and provide voice-verified leads. The company also offers intelligent BOS and digital contact centers to streamline client processes and ensure business growth.

05

Aidey

Aidey is a trusted call center service provider in India, offering 24/7 phone, chat, and email customer support services. It is cost-effective and scalable, serving various industries. The company is dedicated to providing customer support services and offers advanced digital outsourcing solutions. Additionally, they provide assistive services such as recruitment, training, and onboarding at little to no cost, making them the biggest call center in India.

06

BBC Global Servicesdey

BBC Global Services is a top Indian call center company providing process management services to small and large organizations. They offer inbound/outbound customer service, medical billing, collection, back-end process handling, and virtual assistant services to simplify the support process and elevate clients' businesses.

07

DataAngle Technologies Pvt Ltd

DataAngle, a Hyderabad-based firm established in 2015, provides BPO, consultancy services, data processing & scraping services, and CRM solutions. It is among the top 10 Indian call center companies, offering high-quality and tailored services that cater to clients' needs. The company adopts a detailed research approach, providing high-quality leads to assist business expansion.

CallHippo

Easy to use Virtual Phone System with World Class Support

www.callhippo.com

